- Koji stihovi svjedoče o širini dječakova pogleda na svijet?
- Koje je savjet dječaku dala prva učiteljica?

- Kakvu je učiteljicu dječak upoznao kad je krenuo u novu školu?
- Što je ona zahtijevala od njega?
- Usporedi dječaka na početku i na kraju pjesme.

PONAVLJANJE

No dječak reče
Toliko boja u suncu jutra,
Toliko boja u dugu ima,
Toliko mnogo boja u cvijeću
Ja sve ih vidim i služim se njima.

Još na kraju reče:
"Mladiću, znaj, crveno je cvijeće
I uz njeg' zeleno lišće ide
Ne gledaj u njem' neke druge boje
Jer tako ga oduvijek svi ljudi vide."

What is the figurative meaning of the expression "in every grain there are tares"?

What is the figurative meaning of the expression "one swallow does not make a spring"?

Allegory is a stylistic figure and a way of expression in which the conveyed meaning is realized through the entire picture, action or work, turning concrete characters and events into symbols of abstract ideas (eg justice, freedom, human flaws). It is actually an extended metaphor that extends throughout the entire text or work of art.

What is the main message of the song?

DIFFERENT FROM OTHERS

Do you do things the usual way or do you try to be creative and imaginative in your approach? Is your outlook on life and the world the same as your friends? What do you expect from the future? How are you different from others? How do you feel about your difference? How similar are you to the boy in the song?

HARRY CHAPIN

FLOWERS ARE RED

The little boy went first day of school
He got some crayons and he started to draw
He put colors all over the paper
All colors was what he saw
And the teacher said, "What you doing young man?"
"I'm painting flowers", he said
She said, "It's not the time for art young man
And anyway, flowers are green and red.

There's a time for everything young man
A way it should be done
You've got to show concern for everyone else
For you're not the only one"

And she said, "Flowers are red young man
And green leaves are green
There's no need to see flowers any other way
Than the way they always have been seen".

But the little boy said
There are so many colors in the rainbow
So many colors in the morning sun
So many colors in a flower
And I see every one.

Well the teacher said, "You're sassy
There's ways that things should be
And you'll paint flowers the way they are
So repeat after me".

And she said, "Flowers are red young man
And green leaves are green
There's no need to see flowers any other way
Than the way they always have been seen"

But the little boy said
There are so many colors in the rainbow
So many colors in the morning sun
So many colors in a flower
And I see every one.

Well the teacher put him in a corner
She said, "It's for your own good
And you won't come out till you get it right
In responding like you should"

Well finally he got lonely
And frightened thoughts filled his head
And he went up to that teacher
And this is what he said.

And he said, "Flowers are red
And green leaves are green
There's no need to see flowers any other way
Than the way they always have been seen".

Of course time went by like it always does
They moved to another town
And the little boy went to another school
And this is what he found.

The teacher there was smiling
She said, "Paintings should be fun
And there are so many colors in a flower
So let's use every one".

But that little boy painted flowers
In the hues of green and red
And when the teacher asked him why
This is what he said.

And he said, "Flowers are red
And green leaves are green
There's no need to see flowers any other way
Than the way they always have been seen".

But there still must be a way to have our children say
There are so many colors in the rainbow
So many colors in the morning sun
So many colors in a flower
And I see every one.
